Sri M. C. NARASIMHAN.—May I know whether the action taken by the Management is not in violation of the Code of Discipline ?

†Sri B. VAIKUNTA BALIGA.—Sir, the whole matter is sub judice. As to what is not covered by the writ petition, I have no objection to give answer.

Sri M. C. NARASIMHAN.—What is covered by the writ petition is the authority and jurisdiction. My question is, whether the action of the Management in filing a writ petition is not in opposition to the Code of Discipline of vexacious litigation ?

Sri B. VAIKUNTA BALIGA.—Sir, I cannot sit in judgment and tell the House which is vexacious and which is not.

Sri M. C. NARASIMHAN.—Sir, that issue whether it is vexacious or not can never come before the court. It is the Government that has to decide. Who is the authority to say as to whether particular action is vexacious or not ?

Sri B. VAIKUNTA BALIGA.—That can be finally decided only after the High Court decision, rejecting the petition saying that it should not have been filed.

Sri G. VENKATAI GOWDA.—I want to know whether the question whether it is vexacious are not is pending before the High Court ?

Sri B. VAIKUNTA BALIGA.—Sir, whether a particular litigation is vexacious or not can only be decided after the court decides.

Sri M. RAMAPPA.—Does the Minister mean that it depends upon the result of the case ?

Sri B. VAIKUNTA BALIGA.—I do not at all feel like that.

Sri M. C. NARASIMHAN.—Since the case is pending from a long time and since many of the issues pertain to 1956 and earlier, may I know if the Government, through the Advocate General would file an application before the High Court that this matter should be expedited and disposed of early ?

Sri B. VAIKUNTA BALIGA.—We are prepared to make a request, Sir.
